DECEMBER MEETING

The 129th meeting of the City of Ottawa Coin Club was held in the War Museum December 18, 1978. 26 members and 4 guests were present.

The President, B. Walker, called the meeting to order and welcomed back Charles Downie and Howard Harris, both of whom had been on the sick list. Len Fletcher reported that he had visited with Dr. Pace who sent greetings to the Club for the holiday season. Glenn Rodger advised that John Brennan had undergone major surgery and recommended that a get-well card be sent to Mr. Brennan.

The minutes of the November meeting were read by the Secretary. Moved by Gerry Schneider, seconded by Len Fletcher, that the minutes be adopted as read. Carried.

The President reported on the success of the Christmas Party held at the RA Centre on December 8, 1978. Mr. D. Cudahy, Production Manager of the Royal Canadian Mint, an invited guest, gave a few brief remarks. He then conducted a short question and answer period which proved of interest to the members and guests present. The Party was brought to an end with a draw for a number of door prizes. Following this report, Miles Allan moved a vote of thanks to Glenn Rodger for his efforts in organizing the party, which was endorsed by a hearty round of applause from the members present. There were no reports from standing committees and no correspondence to be tabled.

Len Fletcher reported on a proposal by the C.N.A. to adopt a numerical grading system in Canada similar to that adopted by the A.N.A. He had prepared a chart comparing the A.N.A. Numerical System to the proposed Canadian Numerical System relative to the Word System presently in general usage in Canada. After a lovely discussion a vote was taken. The results of the vote favoured the establishment of a numerical system identical to that adopted by the A.N.A. The Secretary was instructed to convey the results of the vote to Mr. James E. Charlton, President of the C.N.A.

The Treasurer displayed one of the new $ 20 Bank of Canada notes and outlined some of the similarities and differences. Emphasis was placed on the change in colour and the positioning of the serial numbers. The note was available for inspection by members after the meeting.

Dan Slade donated his collection of slides taken at the OTTEX 78 Coin Show. The President expressed his thanks on behalf of the Club for Mr. Slade's contribution.

Len Fletcher was imanimocesly re-appointed as the Club's ONA representative.

An application for membership from Frank Fesco was favourably voted upon. The applicant will be accepted into the Club upon payment of dues. An application for membership was received from Rudy Kamel, sponsored by Wayne Houghton. His interests are Canadian and World Coins.

Door prizes were won by Eric Castledine, Janie Milleken and Mildred Rodger. The 50/50 draw was won by Cedric McVean.

The business portion of the meeting was adjourned on a motion by Ray Kelly, seconded by Glenn Rodger.

A small auction brought the evening to a close.

Numismatic Chit-Chat by "Coins"

There is an interesting story concerning the U.S. 1883 five-cent pieces. There were three types of nickels minted during that year and the story concerns the second and third types. The second type used a "V" for the "5" but did not have the word "Cents" on it. This meant it was very similar to the five-dollar gold pieces and it was a favourite trick at that time to gold-plate the nickel and pass it off as a five-dollar coin. To do this someone would act the part of a deaf mute. He would offer the gold-plated coin when making a purchase and hope to receive change for five dollars. It appears this was legal to the extent that he had not implied by spoken word that the coin was a five dollar one.

Because of the practice, a third type of nickel was introduced that year with the word "Cents" on it. Many more were minted with the word "Cents" on but, because of the stories associated with the others, they tended to be kept. To-day they are easily obtainable, while those with the word "Cents" are fairly difficult to find.

NEWS, NEWS, NEWS

The Bank of Canada announced today that it is changing the way in which most denominations of Canadian banknotes are numbered. The purpose of the change is to make the numbers capable of being read by machines. To this end the numbers will appear on the back of notes rather than on the front, they will be in black rather than red and blue, and they will appear against a white background.

The first banknote to be numbered in this way, the $ 20 note, will be available to chartered banks at all Bank of Canada Agencies on Monday, December 18, 1978, and will be available in many chartered bank branches shortly thereafter. A similar change is planned for the latter part of 1979 in the $5 and $10 notes, and at a later date in the $50 and $100 notes. In each case the first issue of a newly-numbered denomination will be announced immediately in advance of such issue.

In the case of the $20 note advantage has been taken of the change in the method of numbering to make two other changes so that note to make it easier to distinguish from other Canadian banknotes. The first of these is to reduce the green tones and increase the pink and orange tones in the colours on the face of the note in order to increase the colour contrast between the $20 and the $ 1 note.

The second is to clarify and strengthen the large numbers on the corners of the front of the note that show its value. The other principal features of the $20 note remain unchanged, including the portrait of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, the coat of arms and the scene on the back.

The $20 notes now in circulation carry the date 1969 and the modified notes carry the date 1979. The $20 notes now in circulation will not be withdrawn but will continue to circulate along with the new ones.

JANUARY MEETING

The 130th meeting of the City of Ottawa Coin Club was held in the War Museum on January 22, 1979, with 30 members and guests in attendance.

The President, B. Walker, called the meeting to order. Before proceeding with the business of the evening the President presented for the approval of the membership a recommendation that the regular draws be held immediately following the opening of the meeting. This amended procedure met with the full approval of the membership present. The door prize was won by Ed Burt and the 50/50 draw by Frank Fesco.

The minutes of the December 1978 meeting were read by the Secretary. Moved by Gerry Schneider, seconded by Glenn Rodger, that the minutes be adopted as read. Carried.

The President advised that, in order to assure that no sick member is overlooked, Bob Flood had volunteered to act as Get-Well Officer for the dispatch of get-well cards. His name and telephone number will appear in all future bulletins and members are asked to advise Bob of the illness and/or hospitalization of any member.

There were no reports from standing committees and no reports of any sick members.

The President advised that there are still many sets of the OTTEX 78 woods for sale. Any members who have not yet purchased a set are urged to do so. Sales to outside parties should also be actively promoted for the benefit of the Club. Glenn Rodger suggested that the ad which had been inserted in World Coin News be renewed for a further period. The Secretary was requested to take the necessary action to renew the ad.

RCM NEWS

Mr. Pierre De Bane, Minister responsible for the Royal Canadian Mint, announced, that two new coins will be struck by the Royal Canadian Mint in 1979: one will honour the International Year of the Child and the other, the three hundredth anniversary of the first voyage by a commercial ship, the Griffon, on the Great Lakes, upstream of Niagara Falls.

The $ 100 dollar gold coin honouring children, shows boys and girls of different nationalities, playfully running hand in hand around the earth, getting to know one another and thus contributing to world unity, says Carola Tietz, of Ottawa, who designed the coin. The obverse of this coin, bears the effigy of Her Majesty the Queen by Arnold Machin.

The silver dollar commemorating the voyage of the Griffon, was designed by Walter Schluep of Montreal and shows the ship in full sail, with the inscription "1679 Griffon 1979". The obverse bears the effigy of the Queen.

Mr. De Bane said that the new $ 100 gold coin, commemorating the International Year of the Child, will contain 91.66% fine gold (22 karat) and 8.34% fine silver. The coin will measure 27 mm in diameter and will weigh 16.965 grams with a gold content of 15.511 grams. The "Griffon" dollar will have a diameter of 36 mm, contain 50% silver and 50% copper and will be available in March.

The coins will be struck in the Hull Mint which specializes in numismatic coins. They can be obtained by writing to the Royal Canadian Mint, P.O. Box 470, Station A, Ottawa, Ontario, K1N 8S5.

HOG-MONEY Copper money of the Bermudas struck in the early seventeenth century. The denominations were 2d, 3d, 6d and 1s. the coins bear the inscription SOMMER ISLANDS. This was the name then given to the Bermudas. The obverse of the coins showed a hog and the reverse a three masted ship; the value was given in roman figures. These coins are considered to be extremely rare.

In 1609 the vessel of Sir George Somers was cast ashore at the Bermudas. The islands were found to be uninhabited, but swarms of pigs abounded, the descendants of animals brought ashore by ships that had previously been to the islands.

FEBRUARY MEETING

The 131st meeting of the City of Ottawa Coin Club was held in the War Museum on February 26, 1979, with 32 members and 8 guests in attendance.

The President, B. Walker, called the meeting to order. There were no reports of any sick or hospitalized members. The President reminded the members to report any knowledge of a sick colleague to the Get-Well Officer, Bob Flood. His name and phone number will appear in the monthly bulletins.

The Door Prizes were won by Ruth McQuade and Ross Caldwell. The name of our Treasurer, Wayne Noughton, was drawn for the 50/50 prize but he donated it back to the Club. The draw was subsequently won by Harold Chalk.

The Treasurer reminded the members that the annual membership fees were due and payable in January and, that in accordance with the By-Laws, failure to pay fees within a three month' grace period would automatically cancel membership. Fees may be paid at regular meetings or remitted by cheque or money order to the Treasurer at the address recorded at the head of the monthly bulletin.

The Minutes of the January meeting were read by the Secretary. Moved by Gary Sirna, seconded by Ray Kelly, that the minutes be adopted as read. Carried.

In accordance with the suggestion made by Glenn Rodger at the January meeting, the OTTEX '78 woods are being advertised for sale in World Coin News, Coin World, and Canadian Coin News. The Treasurer advised that he was experiencing some difficulty in finding suitable materials for packaging and mailing the woods. After a short discussion Gary Sirna volunteered to make enquiries and obtain suitable mailing materials.

MEETINGS: 4th MONDAY of the month, WAR MUSEUM, Sussex Drive, 7.30 p.m.

Len Fletcher reported on his attendance at the Huronia Numismatic Association's Mini Show at Barrie on February 17. He reported that there were 10 competitive displays the calibre of which was quite good.

The President advised that the City of Ottawa had inquired about acquiring 100 uniface Colonel By medallions. In response to questions from the floor Len Fletcher reported on the stock of medallions still held by the Club and speculated on the use of the medallions by the City. He advised that the original dies had been rendered useless for further production in accordance with an agreement with the C.N.A. As the Club still had an adequate supply of medallions on hand, Len Fletcher undertook to look into the matter and report at the next meeting on the possibilities of filling the City's request.

The President advised that Johnny Johnston had volunteered to act as Chairman for the O.N.A. Coin Show and Convention in 1980.

Ruth McQuade reported on the theme and objectives of "Coin Week Canada 1979" to be observed from April 15-21. The theme is "History In Your Hands" to be promoted by means of special events, displays, etc. The objectives are to enlist new members in local clubs across Canada as well as to increase membership in the Canadian Numismatic Association. Participation in the competitive aspect of the week is open to any member C.N.A. Club and for individual member of the C.N.A. Correspondence and Membership Applications received by Ruth McQuade from the C.N.A. Club Liaison officer were turned over to the Secretary. The President recommended that the March meeting be designated as "C.N.A. Night" in recognition of "Coin Week Canada 1979".

Ruth McQuade was asked by the President to act as the Club's C.N.A. representative for 1979, which office she graciously accepted.

Applications for Membership were received from Stan Doroszkiewicz (Senior category) and Peter Veselinovich (Junior category) who were sponsored by Gary Sirna and Bernie Walker respectively.

The business meeting was adjourned on motion by Len Fletcher, seconded by Ross Caldwell.

After a short break, Wayne Houghton, Treasurer of the Club, and an Accountant by profession, presented a very informative talk on "Your Coin Collection and the Taxman", which dealt with the effects of 1971 changes in the Tax Act on the professional and amateur numistatiet. In addition to explaining the different categories of personal properties and how their sale would be effected by the Capital Gains provision of the Act, he provided the members present with a resume illustrating application of the $ 1.000 Floor rule to the sale of coins. A lively question and answer period followed.

Following Wayne Houghton's talk, the auctioning of a wide range of Canadian coins, tokens, and paper money, as well as some foreign items, was conducted by Dick Nash.

NEXT MEETING

The next regular meeting will be held on March 26th 7:30 p.m. in the War Museum. Our guest speaker will be one of our club members. Dr. Stanley Shiff will be giving a presentation about counterfeit coins. This subject is always an interesting one and we hope that you will attend the next meeting.

REMINDER

MINUTES OF THE MARCH MEETING

The 132nd meeting of the City of Ottawa Coin Club was held at the War Museum on March 26, 1979, with 30 members and 9 guests in attendance.

The President, B.Walker, called the meeting to order. There were no reports of any sick or hospitalized members by the Get-Well Officer, Bob Flood. The Door Prize, a one-year membership in the C.N.A. in recognition of "C.N.A.Night", was won by Ian Reveler. The 50/50 Draw was won by Frank "Fesco".

The minutes of the February meeting were read by the Secretary. Moved by Roger Beasleigh, seconded by Garry Schneider, that the minutes be adopted as read. Carried.

The Chairman for Coin Week Canada reported that the Management of the Bayshore and St. Laurent Shopping Centres had regretfully declined the Club's request for displays space to highlight the event and to promote the hobby in the Ottawa area. For the future guidance of the Club, he had been advised that any request for space should be submitted in writing at least six months in advance of the proposed date. The letter should outline the objectives of the Club and the purpose of the event to be held.

The President noted that additional stationery was now required, consisting of 2,000 sheets of letter paper bearing the Club's logo and the word "Bulletin", 2,000 Invitation Cards advertising the time and place of the Club's monthly meetings, and two rubber stamps advertising Ottex'79 and the 1980 O.N.A. Convention, at a total cost of approximately $ 200.00. Moved by Art Carlisle, seconded by Gerry Schneider, that the expenditure be approved. Carried.

The President announced that a contest would be held for designs for the OTTEX '79 woods and the 1980 O.N.A. Convention medallion. The contest is open to all members of the City of Ottawa Coin Club. The prizes in each category and the closing dates of the contests will be announced at the April meeting.

Len Fletcher reported on his follow-up of the request from the City of Ottawa for 100 uniface Colonel By medallions. Although the Club did not have any uniface medallions on hand he had been successful in locating sufficient medallions to meet the City's request. Len Fletcher was authorized to proceed with the necessary arrangements to complete the sale of the medallions to the City. A suggestion was put forward by Ray Kelly that the medallions presently held by the Club might be offered for sale through the Bytown Museum. Len Fletcher undertook to look into the possibility of making such an arrangement.

The Treasurer advised that he had been unable to locate the proper materials for mailing out the OTTEX '78 woods which were being advertised for sale. However, Gary Sirna had offered to donate a stock of Bristol board to be cut to size and used as a protection against breakage in the mails. The Treasurer expected to obtain suitable envelopes for mailing. He estimated that the cost of mailing per set should not exceed 50 ¢.

Roger Beasleigh, Show Chairman for OTTEX '79, reported that a contract had been signed with the Holiday Inn to lease their Commonwealth Room for the show and an initial deposit had been made. Letters were being dispatched to numerous coin dealers. The Chairman further advised that he had a full complement of officers with the exception of a Display Chairman. He called for volunteers for this position and for supporting workers at the show.

Johnny Johnston, Chairman for the 1980 O.N.A. Convention, reported that he had written to Bruce Watt, President of the O.N.A., for an outline of convention regulations. The information had been duly received and reviewed by himself and Len Fletcher. Ruth McQuade and Dick Nash had been consulted concerning their experiences in organizing the 1976 C.N.A. Convention. Johnny Johnston informed the Club that he would be contacting the members in the near future to act on various committees required to carry out the arrangements for the Convention. He requested that funds be provided to meet initial expenditures. Moved by Len Fletcher, seconded by Glenn Rodger, that $ 200.00 be deposited to an account designated as "O.N.A. Convention Account."

Correspondence tabled by the Secretary included announcements of coin shows in Vancouver and St. Hyacinthe and a bulletin from the American Numismatic Association relative to the National Coin Week. Included with this bulletin was a folder on the A.N.A. Certification Service and a list of A.N.A. reprints and numismatic material for sale to A.N.A. members at low cost. Any member wishing further information may contact the Secretary.

The Applications for Membership from Stan Doroszkiewiez and Peter Veselinovich were favourably voted upon and the applicants will be accepted into the Club upon payment of dues. Applications for membership were received from the following:

Bruce Le Breton sponsor-Glenn Rodger interest-
Canadian Coins

Norman M. Stechyson sponsor-Bernie Walker interest-
Silver Dollars

The business meeting was adjourned on motion by Roger Beasleigh, seconded by Gerry Schneider.

Following a short break, Dr. Stanley Shiff presented a most interesting talk on "Counterfeit Coins." His presentation was preceded by a display of photos and coins which the members were invited to examine and show their skill and knowledge by answering the questions posed relative to each item. In his talk Dr. Shiff divided his remarks into three sections dealing with Misrepresentations, Copies and Counterfeits. He provided general remarks on the first two sections. He then dealt in more detail with the subject of counterfeits, from the history of early counterfeiters and their works, to the various methods of counterfeiting employed then and now, i.e., cast coins, electroplating, centrifugal casting, impact dies, electric discharge machining, and concluded with remarks on altered coins and "Whiz" coins, referring to his displays to illustrate his talk. A short question and answer period following.

After another short break to allow members to review the auction material, a spirited auction of both Canadian and Foreign Coins was conducted by Dick Nash.

NEXT MEETING

The next regular meeting will be held on April 23, 1979 at the War Museum. Instead of having an educational Program we will have a "Trade and Swap" night. In the past we have attempted to make a success out of that kind of night but so far we came up only with failures.

So why don't YOU dig up your traders, duplicates etc. and bring them to the next meeting and help to make this night a success.

Remember, one person's "junk" is another person's happiness. It works in other clubs, so why can't it work in ours?

Hammered Coins were produced in England until 1662. That year the milling process of coining was made permanent. The process of "hammering" was as follows: A rough sheared coin blank was held between two dies by the means of a long pair of tongs and a heavy blow was given to one of the dies. The last denominations of hammered coinage struck in England were the small penny, two-penny, three-penny and four-penny silver pieces of 1662.

CONSUMER'S CORNER

In their April newsletter, the Pembroke Centennial Coin Club has a note of interest: "The Champlain High School Club has ordered some materials from J and M Coin and Stamp Co. and wishes to advise the members that if you are considering purchasing some items from this company to check with them in regards as to their honesty or business practices."

Sounds familiar? If so, and you have similar experiences recently why not share them with your fellow club-members. Give your President a call and if found justified, the complaint will get air in these pages.

NUMIS KNOWLEDGE

ELECTRUM (from the greek word elektron, amber) The alloy called electrum by the ancient Greeks consisted of about three parts gold and one part silver, copper and other trace-elements. It was dug up from river sands in an empire called Lydia which was located in Asia Minor. The first electrum coins were struck about 700 B.C.

The word is also used for a man-made alloy consisting of gold and silver and was used as early as the Merovingian times.

Dick Nash suggested that, for the benefit of members who wish to enter a display at OTTEX'79, the Club's display guidelines should be provided. The President responded by agreeing to include the guidelines in the next bulletin. He also advised that the slides presented to the Club by Dan Slade, and featuring displays at the OTTEX'78 show, would be shown at the June meeting.

The President advised that a discussion was held at the last Executive Meeting concerning the incorporation of the City of Ottawa Coin Club. The cost involved would be $ 100 fee plus some nominal legal and miscellaneous expenses. Wayne Houghton, Treasurer, briefly outlined some benefits of incorporation and undertook to make a formal presentation at the next meeting.

From a BRM Press-release

THE ROYAL MINT AT TOWER HILL

With the transfer in 1975 of all minting processes to the new Royal Mint at Llantrisant, near Cardiff in South Wales, the Mint's presence at Tower Hill became restricted to a small group of office staff. This small staff soon be depleted further by the move of the remaining Marketing and Sales officers to premises more conveniently situated in central London. No more than six people will be left in the Royal Mint's traditional London home.

The Royal Mint has been situated in the vicinity of Tower Hill for almost 700 years. Its earliest locations are uncertain but by 1300 it is known to have been within the walls of the Tower of London. From the point of view of security, this must have been an ideal arrangement. With the introduction of coining machinery in the seventeenth century, the Mint's quarters became increasingly cramped and there was tension with the Tower garrison. Disputes between the two parties were not infrequent and there was talk of building a new mint removed from the confines of the Tower. The need to expand the Tower garrison during the Napoleonic War persuaded the Government that the time had come for the Mint to leave the Tower.

The new location, a few hundred yards from the outer walls of the Tower, was a site on Little Tower Hill which had recently been occupied by tobacco warehouses and earlier by the great Cistercian Abbey of St. Mary of Grace, more commonly known as East Minster. Preliminary work began in 1805, the buildings were ready by 1809 and the new steam-driven machinery was given a trial run in April, 1810. The transfer from the Tower was largely completed during 1811 and to the Mint officers, used to conditions in the Tower, it all seemed "stupendous and beautiful."

The main building, with its dignified facade, was designed by James Johnson and finished by Robert Smirke. It was originally intended as a residential block for senior Mint officers but the vast increase in output which is such a marked feature of Mint history in the last 100 years caused it to be taken over for working purposes. With its associated entrance lodges, it is in fact the only part of the Tower Hill site where Mint staff can still be found.

The impending departure of the remaining members of the Marketing and Sales Division means that the Mint's presence at Tower Hill will consist of a modern proof coins shop and a small public exhibition illustrating the history of the Royal Mint. The Smirke building will also remain the home of the Mint's enormously important collection of old coins, medals and dies. It is appropriate that the historical side of the Mint's activities should continue in a building which the Mint has occupied for over 150 years and within sight of the Tower of London which housed the Mint for the previous 500 years.

Draws	Len Fletcher
Secretary	Ed Burt
Treasurer	Wayne Houghton

In his report the Chairman advised that there would be a daily admission charge of 50¢ per person, for which fee a 2 1/2 button, in a distinctive colour, would be issued each day. He advised that the annual Club Banquet, featuring presentation of trophies to the competitive display winners, would be held on September 3, at 8 p.m., at the Holiday Inn. A heated discussion concerning the Identification and Evaluation Table took place. As a result it was decided that identification of coins only would be considered and advertising material possibly amended to reflect this contemplated change. Al Driega suggested that the Club should operate a table for the sale of numismatic supplies, profits from which would assist in meeting expenses. This suggestion will receive close study by the Show Committee.

Len Fletcher, Club Delegate to the O.N.A., gave his report on the C.N.A. Convention at Hamilton, and his over all assessment of the Convention was favourable. A copy of his report was filed with the Secretary. An auction fee of 5% is charged for each lot sold. Reserve bids may be placed on any lot. Owners who bid on their own material shall have to pay the 5% if the lot is knocked down to them.

Individual lots may be marked for Junior Members bids only. If no bids are forthcoming from the Junior Members the bidding shall then be opened to the floor. The practice of having a Junior Member bid for his parent is not ethical.

A successful bidder who decides that the coin is not as described should return it to the AUCTION MANAGER immediately for full refund. Coins will not be accepted for refund except on the night they are sold.

Coins that are obviously not as described (overgraded, etc.) "may not be accepted for auction." During the auction the AUCTIONEER will inform the Members if he considers the coin to be obviously OVERGRADED. When preparing coins for auction grade them as accurately as you can and list such things as scratches, edge damage, etc.

Group several lower priced coins into one lot.

In summary, the CLUB auctions are supposed to be a FRIENDLY thing. SUGGESTIONS for improvement will be WELCOMED . If you intend to submit material for auction DO IT AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AFTER A MEETING.....WHILE IT IS STILL FRESH IN YOUR MIND.

The auction is designed for Members who wish to dispose of SURPLUS MATERIAL which they no longer wish to keep.

MINUTES OF THE JULY MEETING

The 136th meeting of the City of Ottawa Coin Club was held at the Overbrook Community Center on July 23, 1979, with 20 members and 3 visitors in attendance.

The President, Bernie Walker, called the meeting to order at 8 p.m. There were no reports from the Get-Well Officer, Bob Flood, of any sick or hospitalized members. A number of members present were minus their badges and the fines were collected by Roger Beasleigh. Two Door Prizes were drawn for and won by Dan Slade and Ed Burt. The 50/50 Draw was won by Ray Kelly.

Moved by Roger Beasleigh, seconded by Gerry Murphy, that the minutes of the June meeting be accepted as published in the Bulletin. Carried.

As reported in the minutes of the June meeting, Wayne Houghton, Treasurer, has moved from Ottawa. Dan Slade has agreed to take over the Treasurer's duties for the balance of the year.

Al Driega's suggestion, made at the June meeting, for the Club to operate a supplies table at OTTEX'79, was discussed at the last Executive Meeting, and a recommendation was presented to the Club membership for their approval. After a short discussion it was moved by Len Fletcher, seconded by Dick Nash, that the OTTEX'79 Committee be authorized to spend not more than $150 for the purchase of 2x2 coin holders, 20 pocket coin pages and currency pages, for resale at the Show. Carried.

Len Fletcher reported that two designs had been received for the 1980 O.N.A. Medallion. The designs would be turned over to the ONA Convention Committee for judging and the results would be announced at a later date.

MEETINGS: 4th MONDAY of the month, WAR MUSEUM, Sussex Drive, 7.30 p.m.

The President reported that, due to a possible conflict of interest, the incorporation of the Club was being deferred until 1980.

The Chairman of the OTTEX'79 Committee, Roger Beasleigh, reported on preparations for the Show. Sixteen bourse tables have been sold to date and further sale were anticipated. Due to the costs already incurred for the Show the use of admission buttons was being discarded. Alternative means of providing distinctive admission identification were being pursued. Volunteers are still urgently needed for security purposes and to man Club tables. An appeal was made for members to submit displays for competition. Display cases are available from the Club. Tickets for the members draw are still available. The annual Banquet and Awards will take place on Sunday, September 2, 1979, at the Holiday Inn.

The President reported that a quantity of coin papers and publications had been donated to the Club's Library by Ruth McQuade and Dr. Graham Neale. Copies of the publications which were surplus to the Library's needs are available to Club members at nominal cost.

Correspondence received since the last meeting was read and tabled by the Secretary. Of particular interest was a letter from Glenn Rodger, a past President of the Club, who is now living in New Brunswick.

The President also reported that Ruth McQuade had placed an ad for OTTEX'79 in the Canadian Paper Money Society's Journal as a donation to the Club.

The President advised that, at the last Executive meeting, a discussion was held concerning the possible benefits of the Club becoming a corporate member of the Canadian Paper Money Society. No decision had been made and the matter was presented to the monthly meeting for further discussion. It was decided that a ballot would be included in the next bulletin to obtain the views of the general membership on whether the Club should become a corporate member of organizations such as Canadian Paper Money Society, Canadian Association of Token Collectors and Canadian Association of Wooden Money Collectors.

There were no new Applications for Membership. An Application for Membership from Arthur Livingstone, received at the May meeting, was favourably voted upon and, as his membership dues had been received he was accepted into the Club.

The President reminded the members of the vote for Ottawa Area Coin Dealer of the year. He requested that the ballot attached to the last bulletin be handed in or mailed to the Club at an early date so that the votes could be tallied and the presentation made at the annual Banquet.

The business meeting was adjourned on motion by Roger Beasleigh, seconded by Gerry Schneider.

After a brief intermission, a short but lively auction was conducted by Dick Nash. Following the auction a Swap and Trade session was held by the members who had brought some of their surplus material to the meeting.

The President, Bernie Walker, called the meeting to order. The Get-Well Officer, Bob Flood, reported that Merv Jeffrey had been in hospital but was now at home. Len Fletcher, who had been in hospital for a few days, was in attendance and was given a hearty hand of welcome. Fines were collected by Roger Beasleigh from a number of members who were minus their club badges. The Door Prize was won by Georgette Serault and the 50/50 Draw by Cedric McVean.

Moved by Roger Beasleigh, seconded by Gerry Schneider, that the minutes of the July meeting be accepted as published in the bulletin. Carried.

Roger Beasleigh, Chairman of the OTTEX'79 Committee, reported on preparations for the annual show. He advised that an information table had been set up at the Bayshore Shopping Centre on August 21st and 22nd but there had only been limited interest. He further reported that the show would be officially opened at 10 a.m. by Walter Baker, Minister of National Revenue. Judging of competitive displays would take place at 11 a.m. There would be non-competitive displays by the R.C.M.P., Canadian War Museum, British-American Bank Note, and Club members Al Driega, Frank Fesco and Dan Slade. Gerry Schneider, in charge of competitive displays, also appealed to members to prepare and enter displays. The Chairman advised that the Annual Banquet would be held on Sunday, September 2nd, at 8 p.m., in the Rideau Room of the Holiday Inn, with a cocktail hour from 7-8p.m. Tickets are available from Dr. Stanley Shiff.

The President advised that the Ottawa area Coin Dealer of the Year would be announced at the Annual Banquet and requested that ballots be submitted before the OTTEX'79 show. He also announced that the report by Ruth McQuade, Club Delegate to the C.N.A. Convention in Edmonton, would be presented at the next general meeting.

The President noted that the annual election of officers was approaching and called for a volunteer to act as Nominating Chairman. As there were no volunteers the President indicated that he would endeavour to locate a willing recruit before the next meeting.

There were no Applications for Membership and no Applications to be voted upon.

The business meeting was adjourned on motion by Roger Beasleigh, seconded by Al Cockrem.

Following a short intermission, Frank Fesco gave a most interesting talk on circulating coinage of the Ching Dynasty, the last dynasty of the old Chinese Empire, which encompassed the reigns of 16 emperors from 1644 to 1911. His presentation was supplemented by a display of coins, produced under the various emperors which was available for viewing by the members after the talk. By the use of a chalk board Frank explained in some detail the different Chinese characters appearing on the coins. A most absorbing presentation, Frank - We shall look forward to future talks on the coinage of other far east countries.

An auction of a good range of Canadian and Foreign Coins, conducted by Ray Desjardins, brought the evening to a close.

NEXT MEETING

The next regular meeting of our club will be held "at home" again. It will be on Monday, September 24, 1979 in the conference room, 3rd floor, War Museum on Sussex Drive. On the agenda will be a slide presentation of OTTEX'79.

Annual Banquet

The annual Banquet of the Club was held on Sunday, Sept. 2 at 8 p.m. in the Rideau Room of the Holiday Inn. 64 persons attended. The President welcomed everybody, which also included a number of Coin-Dealers. He noted that for the first time in years we had all our honorary members present at the banquet. After the introduction of the head-table Roger Beasleigh, our OTTEX'79 Chairman was given a set of OTTEX'79 woods in recognition of all his work and troubles. Roger in turn thanked all the members who worked hard to make OTTEX'79 a reality.

The President also thanked the coin-dealers who made the show happen. He then proceeded to introduce the evenings guest speaker, Mr. Gordon Kumpikevicius of Montreal, who gave a very interesting speech on numismatics in general.

The presentation of our club's trophies was next. The winners are noted on the show's report in this bulletin. The President noted, that due to the indifference of our own members in regards to competitive displays, three first prizes went out of town. He expressed hope that the club members will improve next year. The only category not known to anybody but the President was the "Ottawa Area Coin-Dealer of the Year." It was awarded to Peter Van Wissen.

Report on OTTEX'79

Our club-show OTTEX'79 was held at the Holiday Inn on Kent Street from August 31 to September 2. The show was officially opened at 10 a.m. by the honorable Walter Baker during a brief ribbon cutting ceremony.

The show itself consisted of 25 dealers and several non-competing displays of high quality. Included in these displays were the 1911 Silver dollar, 4 Victoria Crosses from the War Museum, the RCMP counterfeit display a large display frame from the British American Bank Note Co. as well as 3 displays from our own members, all excellent. the competitive section, although small, was also of high quality. Over the three days we managed to bring in over 500 people. Media coverage this year was also very good. We had reporters from both the Citizen and the Journal as well as a TV Crew from the CBC. This year's show was better than last year's, next year's attempt hopefully will be better than this year's. It takes time and a lot of work. It also helps to be patient. Next year please help as this year's help from the membership was inadequate. For all who missed the show here again are the results in the competitive categories:

Al Cockrem reported on his attendance at the Toronto Coin Club's Show held on Sept. 15/16. The Show opened late and there were many empty display cases. There were too few workers and a lack of attendance. (sounds familiar). The Auction, which consisted mainly of mail and phone bids, yielded approx. $200 income to the Club. The Club was reported to be paying $ 600 per day rental which was supposedly a discount rate after 25 years patronizing of the Royal York Hotel's facilities.

Dick Nash reported on his vacation in the British Isles. He visited many coin dealers and flea markets in England and Scotland and found that generally prices for medium grade Canadian coins were higher than in Canada.

Due to the unavoidable absence of the Nominating Chairman, Roger Beasleigh, the President advised that the Chairman's report, Election of Officers, and Installation of the new Executive, would be carried out at the October meeting.

The business meeting was adjourned on motion by Dan Slade, seconded by Gerry Schneider.

Following a short intermission Dan Slade, assisted by Gerry Schneider, showed slides featuring the highlights of the OTTEX'79 Coin Show. Dan Slade was requested to convey a vote of thanks to his son for the excellent photocoverage of the show.

An auction of coins, tokens, and miscellaneous items, ably conducted by Dick Nash, brought the evening to a satisfactory close.

LAUREATE A bust is said to be laureate when it bears a laurel-wreath. On roman coins this represents the corona triumphalis which is a wreath of laurel leaves without the berries or an imitation of such wrought in gold.

BULLETIN MATERIAL

The editor is looking for bulletin material. The well is getting dry. It seems that this is a general malaise which befalls all clubs or associations periodically. Knowing that we have some very illustrious members of the numismatic literary fraternity as members in our club we theoretically should have no problems finding articles or stories. But the opposite is true. So please help the editor and send some material for your clubs bulletin.

Scribbles

Sir Edgar Bertram Mackennal executed the obverse of the 1911 Dollar which was never minted (only patterns exist). The same obverse was later used for the 1936 Voyageur design. He never lived to see it, as he died on October 10, 1931. No other coin designs were done by him. Borne in Melbourne, Australia on June 12, 1863, he was a sculptor by profession as was his father before him. He studied art in Melbourne, London, Paris and Rome. Although not regarded as an outstanding sculptor, he nevertheless did excellent work. Formal recognition of his ability came in 1921, when he was knighted by His Majesty King George V.

NUMIS-KNOWLEDGE

THE TRIAL OF THE PYX. Out of every 15 pounds (troy weight) of gold and every 60 pounds (troy weight) of silver minted in England, a sample coin is put aside in the pyx, or special box for the annual testing by weight and assay which is known as the "Trial of the Pyx."

This takes place in the Hall of the Goldsmiths' Company in London, England and is called a "trial" as the ceremony is held in the presence of a jury of goldsmiths, who must deliver the verdict in writing to the Lord Chancellor. The "Trial" was introduced from France during the reign of Edward I, and was formerly conducted in the "Chapel of the Pyx" in Westminster Abbey. Before the reign of Edward VI the ceremony was held quarterly. In addition to coinage from the BRM, the goldsmiths also assayed specimens from mints in the Dominions and Colonies.

Grin and bear it

Extracted from an Interview by Canadian Coin News of Jack Veffer, President of the CNA.

CCN: you have often expressed the thought that this hobby is full of crazy people. Can you elaborate on that? Veffer: I have never, ever in my life seen a hobby which is as ludicrous, or businessmen who are as stupid- and I'll go on record on that-as the coin collectors and coin dealers. They're absolutely nuts. Every coin collector is a dealer. The ones who say they're not are liars. There isn't one coin collector who hasn't sold coins at a profit at one time or another. Or one who bought them specifically because he knew he could make a buck on them. And there's nothing wrong with that. The coin collectors who are semi-dealers are not really that bad. It's the dealers who turn out over $50,000 worth of merchandise for a $1,000 profit- I think they're crazy. I've never seen a place where you could make a living that way. Do you know of an business that works on less than 30 per cent profit or so?

Len Fletcher reported on his attendance at an ONA Executive Meeting held in Stratford on October 28. There was some discussion at the meeting on the 1980 Convention which he would convey to the members of our Club's ONA Convention Committee at their next meeting. He advised that he had submitted the name of Steven Desjardins, a Junior winner at OTTEX'79, to the ONA Executive for their further consideration. He also advised that the next meeting of the ONA Executive would be held in Ottawa to provide an opportunity for the Executive to meet with the members of our Club's Convention Committee.

Johnny Johnson reported briefly on the first working meeting of the ONA Convention Committee held recently. Although most positions had been filled there was still a need for assistance from the uncommitted members of the Club.

Under new business the President indicated his desire to have the monthly meetings commence sharp at 7.30 p.m. Len Fletcher gave notice that at the November meeting he intends to move that item III (1) of the Bylaws be amended to read as follows: "Regular monthly meetings shall be held on the 4th Monday of each month, or on an agreed alternative date, at a suitable meeting place of our choice at 7.30 p.m. sharp.

The President commented on the absence of our Junior members (10 out of a total membership of 90) and outlined some of the reasons he felt contributed to their absence. He suggested the possibility of some concerned members undertaking to supervise special meetings for the juniors on a Saturday or Sunday at which the juniors could discuss their own problems and conduct their own auctions. They would continue to have full voting rights at general meetings. It was also suggested that transportation might be arranged for junior members so they could attend the Club's monthly meetings, and a particular effort should be made to ensure their attendance at the next meeting to express their views and discuss their problems and relationship with the Senior members.

To assist the Editors in making the monthly Bulletin more informative the President felt that more input was required from the membership and inferred that he would be approaching specific members for material of general interest.

The President delegated to Roger Beasleigh the responsibility for the forming of a Ways and Means Committee to encourage formation of a permanent display which would be used as a basis for regular appearances at selected city shopping centres to advertise the Club and to promote Coin Week Canada.

The President moved a vote of thanks to Gary Sirna for his donation of $100 to the Club to be administered by the Executive for the good of the Club. The motion was responded to by an enthusiastic round of applause by the members present.

The Applications for membership, received at the OTTEX'79 Show, and recorded in the minutes of the September meeting, were favourably voted upon and the applicants would be accepted into the Club upon payment of dues.

Forthcoming shows, as reported from the floor, were

November 3	Oshawa Coin Club
November 17	Coin & Stamp Show, Billings Bridge Plaza, Ottawa
November 22-25	Fall Torex Show

The acting Treasurer, Dan Slade, advised that the annual financial report would be included with the November bulletin. This report, together with an estimate that the cost of publishing and mailing the monthly bulletin was $5.25 per member annually, indicates that the membership dues should be increased. The President requested that there be a good attendance of members at the next meeting to discuss this important matter.

The President also indicated that the matter of incorporating the Club would be presented for discussion by the members at an early date.

The business meeting was adjourned on motion by Dan Slade, seconded by Gerry Schneider.

After a short intermission, Hillel Kaslove, Assistant Curator of the Bank of Canada, spoke on Canadian Pattern Coinage. In his opening remarks he referred to literature prepared over the years by R.W. McLaughlin, Fred Bowman and Charlton. Although he considered the literature to be excellent he felt that the subject had not yet been fully developed. The main portion of his talk, which was supported by a very good slide presentation, dealt with pattern coinage of the various issuing provinces and of the Dominion of Canada from 1823 up to about 1943.

An auction of approximately 35 items, consisting of coins, tokens, paper money and miscellaneous material, was conducted by Dick Nash and brought the evening to a satisfactory closing shortly after 10 p.m.

NEXT MEETING

Our next regular meeting will be held on November 26/79 at the War Museum. According to our Programme Officer, Gerry Schneider, we will have a presentation from Officer Seguss from the RCMP Counterfeit Division. This should be a very important evening since the problem of counterfeit coins (and papermoney) is ever increasing.

THE APPEAL OF ANCIENT, MEDIEVAL AND FOREIGN NUMISMATICS

(a personal view)

I have been a collector of coins since 1952 and a part-time dealer since 1974. I started off dealing, naturally enough, in Canadian and U.S. coins but became rather disillusioned when I found that I was losing considerable amounts of money when selling my coins (my wife will testify to this). Part of the reason for this was (and still is) the fact that the value of Canadian and U.S. coins is, generally speaking, heavily dependent on their condition and, as we all know, the grading of coins is a very subjective art. After all, it is only human nature for a person to want to get the most for his coins when he is selling (this leads to an unconscious tendency to overgrade, to de-emphasize any defects, etc.) and to pay the least for a coin when he is buying (this leads to an unconscious tendency to undergrade, to over-criticize any defects, etc.) Let's be honest, we ALL do it (some do it consciously, others unconsciously.)

It was at this point that I decided to venture into the jungle of pre-1900 numismatics, having always been fascinated by old coins since I was 8 years old. One of the greatest attractions to me was that, within certain limits, value is less heavily dependent on condition than with Canadian and U.S. coins. It is meaningless to apply the term 'choice BU gem' to a 5th century B.C. Athenian tetradrachm or a George 1st guinea, for obvious reasons. In addition, I've found that it is very easy to make 'bargain buys' (every collector is looking for these, right?) in the areas of foreign numismatics because few dealers have the time to study books and to monitor market trends in these fields. For example, I recently purchased a Dutch ducat dated 1828 from a dealer at Torex for $125 and sold it in a British auction for 200 pounds (over $500). Was I morally wrong to accept the coin at $125, knowing it was worth much more?? However, besides the aspects of monetary profit, there is tremendous enjoyment to be had in all fields of pre-1900 numismatics. Every coin you see or handle has a distinctive character and history and provides us with a meaningful link with our ancestors. At the Montreal show last month I purchased a choice EF Roman denarius of the emperor Septimus Severus (nearly 1800 years old) for a mere $35. It's a common coin, as far as Roman coins are concerned, but vastly underpriced when you consider that such a coin would bring about double or triple that price in Europe, and when you consider that such coins are seldom to be found at any price in local coin shops. In addition, you can actually touch older coins---you don't have to be afraid of damaging a proof-like field or a wire-edge.

Equally fascinating are the fields of Ancient Greek, Celtic, Byzantine and Medieval coins, amongst others. However, don't rush out and buy all the ancient and foreign coins you can get your hands on, otherwise you're sure to lose your shirt. You have to read, and read a great great deal, about your hobby and about what you're buying. If you can afford it, don't be afraid to spend $20 or even $100 on a numismatic book (I've already spent over $3000 on books in the last year and still need many more.) Books and good auction catalogues probably represent the best value for money today in the entire world of Numismatics. Besides the enjoyment and enlightenment you will get from reading them, your acquired knowledge and expertise will enable you to purchase foreign coins at very advantageous prices, both from dealers and from auctions (I can absolutely guarantee it.)

Do it today, read a book on Numismatics -

MINUTES OF THE NOVEMBER MEETING

The 140th meeting of the City of Ottawa Coin Club was held at the War Museum on November 26, 1979 with 27 members and 1 guest in attendance.

In the absence of the President, the Past President, Bernie Walker, called the meeting to order. The presence of Glenn and Mildred Rodger, now living in New Brunswick, was noted by the Past President. A hearty welcome was extended to them, and to Ian Fairweather, a guest, and new members, Louis Cossette, Ken Williams and Robert Hughes. The Get-Well Officer, Bob Flood, reported that George Larose, a recently approved applicant for membership, had suffered a heart attack. Len Fletcher advised that W.E. (Pat) Lambert, Past President of the O.N.A., had passed away. He also brought greetings from Dr. F.C. Pace, whom he had recently visited. The Door Prize was won by Len Fletcher, who donated the prize to the evening's auction. The 50/50 Draw was won by Ian Fairweather, the father of one of our junior members.

Moved by Gerry Schneider, seconded by Ross Caldwell, that the minutes of the October meeting be accepted as published in the Bulletin. Carried.

In accordance with the Notice of Motion contained in the October minutes, it was moved by Len Fletcher, seconded by Gerry Schneider, that the By-Laws be amended to provide for the regular monthly meetings to commence at 7:30 p.m. Carried.

E.G. (Gus) Wersch, a long time member of the Club, spoke briefly to the members present on the subject of the incorporation of the Club. He pointed out some of the advantages of incorporation as well as some of the shortcomings of the present system of operation. He also outlined the procedures to be followed to obtain a charter, and gave some indication of the costs of incorporation. After some questions from the floor the Executive was empowered to study the matter and present their recommendations at the next regular meeting.

Ross Caldwell reported on the Christmas Party to be held on December 7th at the R.A. Centre. He indicated that to date about 40 persons had signified their intention to attend the party. Tickets are available by calling Ross at 745-6683.

Reports on the fall Torex Show in Mississauga and the Coin and Stamp Bourse at the Billings Bridge Plaza were made by John Orach and Johnny Johnston respectively.

Bernie Walker referred to a change in the printing of the Bulletin and advised that further changes were being considered to improve the contents and assist in reducing the costs involved.

Johnny Johnston reported on the activities of the O.N.A. Convention Committee. He advised that he and Len Fletcher were having selective meetings with the various sub-committees and that general meetings were being held on a monthly basis. Volunteers are still required to assist in many areas. Len Fletcher advised that arrangements have been completed for a meeting with the O.N.A. Executive on December 1st in the Carleton Room of the Holiday Inn at 2 p.m. Convention Committee members not present at the November meeting of the Club will be advised and requested to attend.

Program Chairman, Gerry Schneider, advised that, due to unforeseen circumstances, Officer Seguss of the R.C.M.P. Counterfeit Division could not be present and the program will be rescheduled for a later date. He is endeavouring to obtain O.N.A. slides for the next regular meeting.

The business meeting was adjourned on motion by Ross Caldwell, seconded by Gerry Schneider.

Following a short intermission, Cedric McVean, 1st Vice President, and Gerry Schneider, Program Chairman, held an informal discussion on ways and means of improving the regular meetings of the Club. A number of suggestions were received from the floor for streamlining the business portion of the meetings and on the types of program material that would be of interest to the members. The drop in attendance by the Club's junior members was also discussed and ideas were solicited for rekindling their interest in the Club.

Len Fletcher conducted an auction of some 30/40 items to bring the evening to a close.

RCM NEWS FLASH

Yvon Gariepy, Master of the Royal Canadian Mint announced today, on behalf of the Honourable Roch LaSalle, Minister of Supply and Services, that commencing January 1, 1980, the one-cent coin will be modified.

The new coin will be slightly lighter. Part II of the Appendix to the Currency and Exchange Act has been amended by the Governor in Council to change the weight of the one-cent from 3.24 grams to 2.8 grams - a reduction of 13%.

The diameter will be 19 mm, virtually the same as at present and the edge thickness will be reduced from 1.65 mm to 1.38 mm.

The decision to reduce the size of the one-cent coin was made for economic reasons as production costs, including minting and the price of the metal, exceeded the nominal value and increased annually.

Mr. Gariepy said that the change "is minimal and hardly noticeable" and that it should not cause any serious problems.

BOOK REVIEW

"Money of the World" by Richard G. Doty

I have just read the book "Money of the World" by Richard G. Doty and thought there might be other members of the Club who would find it interesting. There is a copy in the Down Town Public Library and the number is 737.409 D725.

This is an excellent book for beginners and intermediates who are interested in world coins. The subject matter covers the production of coins from the earliest Greek period to modern day. The book is divided into a number of well defined coin eras, including sections on early Chinese, Oriental Coinage and paper money. The pictures used to illustrate the text are superbe. They are large, carefully described and have obviously been selected to match the story being told. If your interest to date has been more or less centred on Canadian Decimals and you want to widen your knowledge, this would be a good book to start with.
Happy reading - C.V.

NEXT MEETING

The next meeting will be held on the 17 of December at the War Museum. On the program will be a slide presentation intitled "Romance of World Coins." Please make plans to attend this years last meeting.

NUMISMATIC CHIT-CHAT by "Coins"

In modern time we are quite use to seeing the head of a king or queen on our coins. However, this was not always the case and the habit of putting the ruling king's head on coins did not commence until several hundred years after coins were first produced in the Western World.

The Greek state of Lydia developed the ideas of coinage around 620 B.C. and they tended to be lumps of electrum punch marked on one side. Over the years that followed coins took on the shape as we know them today and the single punch mark was change for marks or designs on both sides of the coins. At this time it was quite normal for coins to have the heads of Greek gods on them or an animal associated with a particular Greek city-state, but never a living person.

The first person to change this situation was Ptolemy I who ruled Egypt from 323-285 B.C. Ptolemy ruled a part of the empire that Alexander the Great had created before him. In order to emphasise his connection with Alexander the Great and, perhaps, because Alexander's greatness was close to that of a god, Ptolemy decided to put Alexander's head on a coin in 317 BC. Alexander was of course not living at the time, but it was a portrayal of a human being rather than a deity. Ptolemy then followed by placing his own name along with Alexander's and finally dropped the references to Alexander, replacing them with his own name and portrait. Truly the first coin with the living ruler's head on it. Perhaps the most interesting aspect of these factors is the molding together of two ideas that was taking place. The Greek city-states had tended to use the heads of gods on their coins, but Alexander the Great had extended the Greek empire to the East and many of the Eastern ideas were beginning to mingle with those of the Greeks. One of these Eastern ideas was that their monarchs were divine or semidivine. So when Ptolemy placed his portrait on the coins of his kingdom he was following the Egyptian tradition that Pharaoh's were divine. A beautiful combining of traditions.

EDITOR'S CORNER

This being the last bulletin of the year, your editor would like to put in a few parting shots. It is hoped, that the "members" of the club take some of the points to heart and plan to be real members in the year 1980.

1. Attend the monthly meetings.
2. Help when requested to so by the executive.
3. Offer your services voluntarily if able to do so.
4. Donate numismatic material to the club.
5. Contribute financial aid to the club.
6. Introduce your friends to numismatics and sponsor them for club-member-ship later on.

If you decide to help your club, (not just pay lip-service) follow any of the points above, YOUR club will appreciate it.
