40	Br. 896a. Wayte Raymond 123. Court. 360. Obv. Crude view of a building; above, HALF PENNY. Rev. J B in script. This token always crude and poorly struck up. only fair, as usual. This token, while having been asserted by some to be from Nottingham, England, has been recognized by Canadian collectors as having been issued by John Brown of Halifax who conducted a West Indian trade in that city. The building depicted on the obv. was long thought to have been that of W. & A. S. Black, (see Br. 892-3) but through the	30.00

research of Earl Hidden and "An Occasional", published in The Numismatist, Oct. 1913, it was identified to be the Marchinton building from which place Brown carried on a retail dry goods store. It was for this business that the token was suggested to have been issued. As some of these tokens were found in Nova Scotia, it seems fairly certain that they have been correctly attributed, and as such constitute one of the earliest locally produced token coinages.

- 62 Blacksmith token. "Riseing Sun Tavern." nine letters visible, as good or better than average. rare. 75.00
- 63 George Burns farthing. Burns, a London, Ont. tailor, when on a trip to London, England, found his namesake on this token. He secured as many as possible and claimed to have had it made for himself by a firm in England. Burns started in business in 1861, and from 1864 - 1880 was in business for himself. After this date he took a partner named Lewis. The obverse of this token is the same as the "To Hanover" spiel marke. Obv. VICTORIA (young bust) REGINA. Rev. GEOE BURNS/CLOTHING/LONDON. brass. 22mm. v.f., but pierced. McColl claims that only 144 pieces were struck. 17.50
- 64 Quebec Militia button. QUEBEC MILITIA on scroll at top; in centre, crown; beneath, 1775. These buttons, when divested of their shanks, circulated as change at a time when copper coinage was somewhat of a scarcity. The buttons were struck for the raw levies in Canada that aided the English in trying to subdue the American War of Independence. much scarcer than the Montreal Militia button. g-v.g. 90.00
- 65 CAN/IDA token. Rev. ST. AMANT. brassy copper. 25mm. v.f. 50.00
This is one of the tokens that McLachlan describes as coming from the vaults of the B. of M. at Quebec. (Hoard of Can. Coppers) There were about 60 specimens in the hoard of 12,000 odd lightweight tokens. He assumed that they were issued by a merchant of that name in Quebec as the name on the rev. is "part of a steel stamp used for marking goods." In the first Courteau Sale, 1944, it is described as a counter of the St. Amant College. Hardly likely. There is another variety dated 1820 on the rev. side, likewise in incused form.

- 77 Cstd. token. "Findlay & McWilliams, Montreal." on worn George 111? 1 1/2 penny. cstp. v.g. Jonathan Findlay & Thomas McWilliams seemed to have joined up about 1871 as wholesale confectioners. They were located at 512 & 514 St. Paul St. The partnership seems rather incongruous as we find Findlay listed as a boilermaker in 1856, railway contractor in 1857-58 and a boilermaker again in 1862. McWilliams is listed from 1858-62 as a confectioner at various addresses. The partnership could not have been of long duration for in 1877 they are both listed under their former occupations. 25.00
