A favourite way to invest in silver! We can offer in lots of $250 face, $500 face, and $1,000 face. Prices vary with the silver market, but are usually about "spot plus 5-10%". With silver at $9 U.S. per ounce this means $1,000 face would cost $7,144.00

Please phone for daily quotations - we also buy bulk silver.

BU ROLLS

We can usually supply BU roll sets of most coin types and years from 1967 onward, or can find them to order. Prices are generally a small percentage over face, plus shipping.

NEWFOUNDLAND SALE

In this list we are pleased to offer at very competitive prices a selection of coins from one of our specialties, Newfoundland. Please compare "trends" and our prices carefully and watch out for the real bargains!

We recently purchased an original hoard of Nfld 1c 1936. Though uncirculated, all are a bit "spotty" and we could call them at best AU despite their original status. As a special incentive we are offering one of these coins (first order gets the best piece, and so on) completely FREE with any order for three or more coins from this section. Enjoy!

A VIEW OF THE "MARKET" - a short article answering some questions we are often asked.

There are as many different views on what will happen next in the coin market as there are people. No-one really knows, for anyone who did would be able to make an infinite amount of money and retire! We are often asked what should be held, what should be sold. Our general rule of thumb is this: when the rest of the world is lining up to buy, it's time to sell. When everyone is selling, it's time to buy.

We've not done too badly in the last year, despite it being a year when many coin dealers lost large amounts of money. One thing we've consistently done is maintained a market in things which everyone was trying to get rid of. When, last year, Newfoundland coins were as cheap as I can remember, we bought them in the hundreds, including the scarce dates. Now we're able to offer them at fantastic savings over competitors' prices!

These countries are presently "hot" and we can predict that eventually there will be a market collapse: Norway, Korea, Japan, Venezuela, a few others. We don't hang onto coins from these countries, as we don't want to be left holding the baby!

These countries are currently very "cold", and long-term appreciation might best be achieved by purchasing shrewdly in their better coinage: Ireland, Denmark, Australia, New Zealand, Germany, Netherlands. Some of these have seen a serious collapse in the last few years.

When the world is lining up to sell, it's time to buy! Choice 1967 dollars, cased proof dollars, PL sets - these have recently seen major price revisions. They may go a little cheaper, but many people now want to sell. We are buying, and would counsel our investment-oriented customers to seriously consider these commodities

What's consistent? For steady growth or stable market conditions, we recommend the following areas of collecting: Choice ancients, scarce numismatic literature, U.S. gold and some U.S. type, classic rarities. It's a great time to buy British, given the sad plight of the pound! But no market is manipulation-proof.

Should I sell my silver today or wait for it to go up? If I knew the answer to this one, I could retire by the end of the year! Bullion investors have much in common with well-informed bettors at a "straight" racetrack!

UP FOR OFFERS

Remaining over from a library we recently broke up we have an excellent collection of modern auction catalogs from firms around the world. They were mostly issued over the last 3-4 years, and include series from the following firms:

Lepczyk, Cunningham (tokens), Pacific, Ponterio & Wyatt/Assoc., Christensen, Stacks, Ahlstrom (Swedish), Auctions West, Bowers and Ruddy, Spink U.S.A., Waddell (Ancients), C.I.C.F., Jess Peters, Inc., New England Rare Coin Galleries, Giessener Munzhandlung, and many more. Approximately 150 catalogs in all, full of good illustrations.

Please let us have your offer for this small start to an excellent research library - postage, regrettably, will have to be added on this lot. We can ship book rate, to save you some money. We suggest a bid of $100 or more, in fairness to the consignor and us!

AUCTION CATALOGS URGENTLY WANTED

We urgently wish to acquire, to complete a reference set, the following SPINK & SON (England) AUCTION CATALOGS Nos. 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 13.

We will pay $5 per intact catalog, plus shipping, or will trade for other items you need if we have them. Please help!

AMAZING CHINESE CASH COLLECTION

We have been lucky enough to acquire an excellent collection of Chinese cash of the Northern Sung Dynasty, covering 24 Kings in all. To quote the erudite gentleman who sold us the set " ... all in different calligraphies you can imagine: in grassy handwriting, orthodox, running and seal writing and most of these varieties that are presently not listed by Schjoth or Lockhart."

These VF/EF pieces are mounted in one album and identified, and we have one set only. Our incredible asking price $160.00

RARE "STATE OF OMAN" PROOF SET

We are pleased to offer one set of proof coins of the "State of Oman", consisting of 5, 10 and 20 riyals 1971. This is a proof only issue. A note in the 1982 Krause catalog states: "These were issued by the exile government of Imam Ghalib Ibn Ali in Dammam, Saudi Arabia, and distributed from a post box in Amman, Jorday. The imamate had enjoyed effective autonomy in the interior of Oman from 1920-54, at which time the Sultan resumed direct control. Imamist forces in Oman were finally driven out in 1959." No one seems to know how many of these sets were made or sold, but we have seen prices as high as $150 U.S. Our price for this rare 3-piece set, the only one we have ever had $90

PLATE MONEY OF SWEDEN AND RUSSIA - A SPECIAL OFFERING

Over the years one of our particular interests has been the unusual and fascinating "plate money" issued by Russia and Sweden in the eighteenth century. We are particularly pleased to have been offered the following nice selection of examples, which covers all major types generally available on the market today.

A number of options for purchase from this selection are offered below. To all purchasers we offer, free of charge, to add a copy of the major items from our extensive file on plate money, in the hope this will encourage further research.

SWEDEN: HALF DALER PLATE MONEY

- 1717 S.M. 1/2 daler, Fine plus, nice colour, Ah1-170.
 1733 S.M. 1/2 daler, Very fine, bold strike, Ah1-285.
 1743 S.M. 1/2 daler, Very fine, attractive, Ah1-295.
 1747 S.M. 1/2 daler, Fine to VF, pedigree to Springfield collection, Ah1-299.
 1749 S.M. 1/2 daler, Very Fine, bold strike, Ah1-301.

SWEDEN: 1 DALER PLATE MONEY

1736 S.M. 1 daler, About Very Fine. 1 daler and two daler pieces are the scarcest and most difficult types to acquire, though not so expensive as the massive 4 daler pieces.

SWEDEN: 2 DALER PLATE MONEY

1715 2 daler, Stockholm Mint, with INS certificate of authenticity. VF for this usually crude issue, some pitting, probably from brief exposure to salt water. Knowing the weight of this piece we understand why the ship sank ...

1712 2 daler, solff-myf, about VF, ex. Spink.

SWEDEN: 4 DALER PLATE MONEY

1735 4 daler, strong VF and very rare thus. An exceptionally attractive piece, Ahlstrom-198. A magnificent piece to add to any advanced collection.

RUSSIA: 5 and 10 kopeck plate money.

1726 Ekaterinburg 5-kopeck plate money, novodel. Brekke-41A, 47.72 grams. Extremely fine, rare thus.

1726 Ekaterinburg 10-kopeck, Catherine I, Eagles' breasts plain. Brekke-52, an original piece of the highest rarity. VF, with a small spot-drill mark on obverse, which does not detract. So far as we know this is one of very few opportunities to acquire such a piece in the last decade.
