LIST # 39

WINTER 1984

To all our valued clients and friends:

Welcome, welcome to our final list of 1984. To you and yours, our very best compliments of the coming festive season!

There are no discounts offered in this list. Instead, we have lowered our prices on most items to reflect current market. There are many hidden bargains for the careful reader!

Please look carefully through this list: we have a great new offering of world coinage including a superb collection of early British hammered pieces, as well as bargain prices on Canadian and Newfoundland decimal coinage and our usual excellent range of lots and wholesale specials.

Included with this list is a subscription form for 1985. If you have already sent in your subscription, please ignore this reminder: otherwise, we do urge you to send in your contribution to printing and mailing costs as soon as possible so as not to miss our first two lists and auctions of 1985. We know you will consider our offerings well worth the modest subscription level, which covers less than half the cost of printing and mailing our our catalogs.

Finally, please note that we will have a new telephone number from November 30, 1984: it is:

(613) 744-4077

1870, Uncirculated MS-60. Pleasantly toned. The ultimate and most difficult uncirculated type coin in the entire decimal series. This lovely coin has no signs whatsoever of wear, is well struck and has lovely iridescence adhering around the devices. We know of only one finer example, for which the owner has refused an offer of $20,000 (we would have accepted the offer). We feel our piece is a great buy for the type collector or investor and expect it to be quickly sold at just 5200.00

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

"Holey Dollar", early 1800s. On Mexico City 8 reales 1808, VF, with the counterstamp correctly positioned on the forehead of Charles IV. Though no-one is certain of which of the various dollars is the original and which are the various contemporary merchant copies, I believe this piece to be a contemporary merchant piece. I guarantee it not to be a modern counterfeit. It is most attractive and would be a highlight of any token or coin collection. Bargain-priced at just 299.00

ANCIENT COINS

We are very pleased to be able to offer in this catalog our most extensive selection to date of excellent ancient coinage, including several pieces of extremely high quality and some very attractive sestertii at realistic prices.

The weakness of European currencies has made it possible for us to buy ancients at very competitive prices in Europe, and we offer substantial savings here as a result. As the pound has recently gained in strength we imagine that this situation cannot continue, but while it lasts it is certainly pleasant!

Please read through this section carefully if you are interested in Ancient coins. There is truly "something for everyone".

Great Britain: Hammered Coinage

The Sands Collection of English pence and their predecessors

It is with profound pleasure that we announce our acquisition of the Sands collection of British pence and their predecessors. The collection is a remarkable group of common to rare, mainly hammered coinage. Every coin in the group has the distinction of being in superior condition to those generally found of the type, and virtually every coin in the group is free of defects! Naturally a premium of value is attached to such superb condition. Nevertheless we are able to make a special offer of a discount of 10% on purchases of five or more pieces from the "Sands" section only.
