PREMIUMS. ON COINS

Why is it that certain specimens of coins command a premium over their par value?... This question is frequently asked by those who are not acquainted with the extent of the Numismatic taste. There are thousands of collectors, and they are to be found among all classes, from the humble artisan to the millionaire, and the fact that they are all searching for a copy of each piece, each date and each variety is a good explanation that some of these amateurs cannot obtain certain coins who disappears from circulation being much looked for and thus obtain a certain value according to the demand. Like other articles of merchandise, the demand and supply has created not only collectors, but dealers who regulates the price of each piece from its rarity and also from prices realized at coin auction sales from time to time in the United States, England, France and other countries.

A most essential criterion of value of a coin is its condition.

Contrary to general belief the age is of but little consideration as compared with the state of preservation. Age of a coin is but a slight factor; for instance, some coins two thousand years old if in poor condition are not worth as much as others struck during the last century in good condition.

PRIMES SUR LES MONNAIES

Pourquoi certaines monnaies commandent-elles une prime sur leur valeur intrinsèque?... Cette question est souvent posée par ceux qui ne sont pas au courant de l'extension du goût de la numismatique. Il y a des milliers de collectionneurs recrutés parmi toutes les classes de la société, depuis l'humble artisan jusqu'au millionnaire, et le fait que tous ces amateurs sont à la recherche d'un spécimen de chaque pièce émise, de chaque date, de chaque variété enfin, est l'explication bien naturelle que beaucoup ne peuvent se procurer certaines pièces qui disparaissent de la circulation par le fait qu'elles sont recherchées, et par conséquent prennent une valeur plus ou moins grande suivant la demande. Donc, la grande demande des monnaies a créé, non seulement des collectionneurs mais aussi des marchands de monnaies qui règlent les prix de chaque pièce d'après leur rareté et d'après les prix réalisés dans les ventes par encan qui se font de temps à autre aux Etats-Unis, en Angleterre, en France ou ailleurs.

La condition d'une monnaie a bien souvent plus d'effet dans sa quotation que sa date; quand même une monnaie daterait de deux mille ans; si elle est en mauvaise condition, elle ne vaudra peut-être pas autant qu'une autre émise il y a vingt ans, mais très bien conservée.

L'idée générale répandue dans le public est que plus une monnaie est ancienne plus elle a de la valeur; eh bien, presque toujours c'est le contraire qui arrive.

- 1° Send us a list giving dates and descriptions.
- 2° Always enclose stamp for reply.
- 3° If we answer to send the coins, they should be carefully packed and sent by registered mail or express prepaid in advance, and if we find the invoice, as stated in the list, payment will be sent at once.
- 4° No coins should be sent to us without our consent.
- 5° We shall not be responsible for coins sent us without being registered or sent by Express.

REGLES A SUIVRE POUR L'ENVOI ET LA VENTE DES MONNAIES

Les personnes désirant vendre des monnaies mentionnées dans ce catalogue devront:

1° Nous envoyer une liste donnant la date et descriptions des pièces.

2° Inclure un timbre poste pour la réponse.

3° Si nous leur répondons de nous adresser les pièces, il faudra les empaqueter et les adresser soit par lettre enregistrée ou par express, frais de transport payés d'avance, et si nous trouvons les pièces telles que désignées dans la liste, nous enverrons le paiement aussitôt.

4° Aucun envoi ne devra nous être fait sans notre avis.

5° Nous ne serons pas responsables des envois qui ne seront pas adressés comme ci-dessus mentionnés.

6° Comme beaucoup de pièces ne diffèrent que par une légère différence, il ne faudra pas vous croire infallibles, si l'on vous reconnaît en erreur en nous mentionnant une pièce pour une autre. Des collectionneurs ont quelquefois de la difficulté à s'y reconnaître; dans ce cas, pas besoin de vous formaliser si vous vous trompez.

7° Lorsque nous recevons des envois et qu'il y aura erreur dans les pièces tel qu'expliqué dans l'article six ci-dessus, nous vérifierons l'erreur et ne ferons remise que pour les valeurs réelles.

8° Les personnes désirant connaître la valeur des monnaies étrangères, ou autres sortes d'argent non mentionnées dans ce catalogue, devront inclure 10 sous pour frais de recherches.

9° Adressez vos lettres, paquets, etc., à

COLORADO GOLD COINS

OREGON GOLD COINS

The issue of the Oregon gold coins was promoted by the same causes as in the other Western states—lack of convenient currency. After an unsuccessful attempt by the Provisional government to establish a mint, a private company—the Oregon Exchange Co., issued coins of the $5.00 and $10.00 denominations. The mint was erected at Oregon City; the necessary coining apparatus was made by a blacksmith.

Coins struck in Carolina were all made at one private mint owned and operated by Christopher Bechtler and his son, August, whose names appear on all coins of their mintage. The mint was located at Rutherfordton, Rutherford County, N. C. It was operated from 1831 to 1840.

WAR TOKENS

These tokens were issued by different parties during the Civil War. There are about 500 different varieties; they are the size of the small cent. None are very valuable. We pay $1.50 per 100 pieces.

COMPOSITION SPIEL MARKS

These pieces were all made about the middle of last century and are somewhat in imitation of the U. S. $2.50, $5.00, $10.00 and $20.00 gold pieces and were originally issued as counters. They are of no value.

HARD TIMES TOKENS OR JACKSON CENTS

Issued in 1834 to 1841. There are about 150 varieties all are about the size of the large copper cents; some were struck in brass. Their issue was prompted by the currency question, which was then a great political issue and all bear inscriptions politically significant. There are a few rare varieties, but the greater portion are common and for which we pay from $2.50 to $5.00 per 100 pieces.

OLD UNCURRENT BANK BILLS

(Broken Bank Bills)

1800 to 1876

A great number of notes in various denominations were issued by Banks and Banking Institutions prior to the Creation of the National Banking System, and which have ceased to be current since that time. Many of these banks have lived but a short time, having either failed or gone into liquidation.

For the issues prior to 1837 we pay 10 cents to 25 cents per note; later issues $2.00 to $10.00 per 100 notes.

Registered in Canada in 1934.

TO RARE COIN SEEKERS

Do not be discouraged if, after buying this book, you should not happen to find a valuable coin immediately. Remember that if a coin were common, it wouldn't be rare, and it is upon the scarcity of a certain kind of coin that the value depends.

We know of persons who have kept their eyes open for scarce coins for several years without success, yet ultimately found a coin worth hundreds of dollars.

AUX CHERCHEURS DE MONNAIES RARES

Ne vous découragez pas si, après avoir acheté ce livre, vous ne trouvez pas une pièce de grande valeur immédiatement. Rappelez-vous que, si une monnaie était commune, elle ne serait pas rare, et que la valeur d'une pièce dépend de sa rareté ou de la difficulté plus ou moins grande qu'il y a à se la procurer.

Nous connaissons des personnes qui, pendant plusieurs années, ont recherché des sous rares sans succès et qui, tout à coup, ont trouvé des monnaies valant des centaines de piastres.
